

Exploring Culture Conversation Guide

Take turns sharing the answers to the following questions one section at a time, your friend first, then you share briefly as well. Enjoy getting to know each other!

How are leaders chosen in your community?

In what ways do your family interact with non-family persons?

Share an example of when an important decision about family resources needed to be made and how that decision was made?

What are the most important topics parents must teach children?

Describe the process of deciding who will marry whom?

Which member of your family leads the family in religious matters?